

Congressional passage of health insurance reform will make a substantial positive difference in the lives of so many. Thursday's final approval of the bill marked the conclusion of our immediate legislative work to achieve health insurance reform, which has now finally become the law of the land. Please join me in Austin this Sunday, March 28 at 4:00 p.m. at 1106 Lavaca St. (downtown, across from the Governor's Mansion) to mark its passage, learn more about what reform means for you and your family, and to be a part personally of the important continuing effort to ensure that this law achieves its full promise.

What: Salute to the Passage of Health Insurance Reform

When: Sunday, March 28, 4:00 p.m.
